ONE OF OUR NUMEROUS WAITING SPOUSES

stopped me the other day and asked if I could explain what makes people buy so much fabric. I said sure. There is an immense satisfaction in creating a hand made item, whether for a gift or for one's own home. Creating keeps the mind active and stimulated which keeps us more alive and alert. I even used the word addiction, but explained it was a healthy one because of the mental stimulation mentioned above. Since one wants to be mentally alert all year, it's necessary to be prepared. Thus, a stash is healthy. Every day is a good day for quilting.
